

Close your eyes

The sun is shining, the ocean is so near people are still coming towards the sound of music and they are crying tears of joy don't you hear them singing a forgotten melody

Now just close your eyes and don't philosophize there is a time when we all are free and the pain turns into felicity

The night is falling, the fire is burning the smell of vine and sea are in the air people are dancing to the rhythm of music and the guitarist improvises on the string

Refrain(2x)
