

Let's leave this place

You said you would love me, adore me, miss me, need me
But now you're so cold, so ignorant and bored
That I have the feeling that you want get rid of me

Honey,
The party is over, and the rules have changed there is nothing more to say, you can go away the lights are going out now, the sun is coming out now we are ready to fly away, so let's leave this place

Then I will tell you have a nice day

I was so excited, so blinded, just crazy, believe me that I was just thinking I could not resist it this feeling I had which I could not understand actually I didn't know what I felt...

Ou....this were flames of passion
